Keystroke Encryption Software

Keylogging spyware, a leading component in SMB breaches, steals everything you type including your banking credentials, customer information, emails and other sensitive data. Keyloggers infect your PC when clicking on links inside emails, using social media or surfing the web. EndpointLock™ keystroke encryption software blocks spyware and keeps everything you type private.

FEATURES	BENEFITS
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Five Software License Keys for Windows 7, 8 and 10 and Mac OS 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Patented Keystroke Encryption method • Guaranteed to block the capture of keystrokes on any PC. • Unlike Anti-virus which identifies only known catalogued malware, keystroke encryption protects from zero-day (unknown) keylogging malware. • Insures privacy for emails and other sensitive information. • For anyone who banks, shops and shares personal information digitally.

Dark Web Scan (Pre-event Monitoring)

Out of the reach of regular Internet searches, lies the Dark Web, a hub for secret chat rooms, forums and black-market sites that sell or distribute illegal products and services and house compromised databases containing millions of stolen identities. Our Dark Web Scan will report if your email address has been found in one or more of these databases and we offer steps you can take to prevent further compromise.
